It is with great pleasure that I announce the hiring of Jamie Bezanson as the Golf Course Superintendent for Highland National Golf Course / Highland 9. Jamie brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to the job. He graduated from Penn State University in Golf Course Turfgrass Management and he also holds an Associate's Degree in Landscape Horticulture from Nova Scotia Agricultural College. Jamie spent the last eight years as the Superintendent of Oneka Ridge Golf Course in White Bear Lake and previously worked as an Assistant Superintendent at Prestwick Golf Club in Woodbury for six years. Prior to Prestwick, Jamie also worked at Saucon Valley Country Club in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania and Glen Arbor Golf Club in Nova Scotia, Canada. Jamie will begin his new assignment on May 31, 2017.

Along with his impressive resume he holds many awards:

- 2015 MGCSA Environmental Leadership Award Winner
- 2013 Midwest Golf Course Owners Association course of the year
- 2013 David S. Zimmerman Award Memorial Turfgrass Achievement Award voted by peers for leadership and professionalism
- Watson Award winner for an article published in MGCSA Hole Notes.
- 2013 Penncross Bentgrass Growers Association Scholarship for Academic Achievement

Please join me in welcoming Jamie to the team!

Sincerely,

Susie Odegard
